Barbara Cartland – Pretty in Pink

1 _____ Barbara Cartland, the world's best-selling writer and Queen of Romance, died at the age of 98 in May 2000. Writing an average of twenty-three novels a year, she completed over 700 books, which have been translated into major languages, including Japanese, Chinese and Russian. Her literary career started in 1923 and she sold over 900 million copies of her books worldwide.

2 _____ Even in her late nineties, Barbara Cartland was full of the energy of a much younger woman. Although she could not see or hear very well, she listened carefully and talked with enthusiasm about English society and its values. She said, 'What we have to do is bring back the wonderful manners English gentlemen used to have. All over the world, when I was a little girl, they all thought the English had beautiful manners and behaved extremely well.'

3 _____ Barbara Cartland respected the ideals of charity and kindness. 'It's very important to think about new ideas for helping people,' she said. 'Nobody bothers D Cartland's personality E The general content of her books F Cartland's main beliefs about life today. People are not helping each other the way they used to. We must get away from that.'

4 _____ Cartland was also famous for playing an active role in politics. She managed to get government support for programmes to provide houses for elderly people. She was even responsible for a change in the law which forced local government to provide sites for gypsy communities and enable gypsy children to attend local schools.

5 _____ She met politicians, royalty and stars from all over the world, but meeting the rich and famous was not the most important thing in Barbara Cartland's life. Instead, she said, 'The great thing is really to feel that you're helping other people.' She wanted to be remembered for her books through which she tried to give morality, beauty and love to the world.

IV. WRITING

You have received a letter from your English-speaking pen friend Andrew.

...My dad bought me a laptop yesterday. It's cool! Now I can play computer games everywhere! But it drives my mum crazy. She says that all computer shooting games are stupid. What do teenagers in your country do in their free time? Do you like or dislike computer games and why? What do you use computers for?...

Write him a letter and answer his 3 questions.

Write 100-120 words. Remember the rules of letter writing
